Description

Jean-Gustave Gagliardini (1846-1927) Very pretty oil on canvas representing a Mediterranean port animated by characters and boats in the foreground. Beautiful spring or summer colors
Dimensions with frame: 59cm X 74cm
Dimensions without frame: 65.5cm X 50.5cm
Painting preserved and presented in its original state. It has never been restored. Gagliardini was first a pupil of the history painter Claude Soulary, then they entered the studio of Léon Cognet at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Paris. He then turned to figure painting. He made his debut at the 1889 salon with portraits and genre scenes. They abandon historical subjects in favor of the landscape to which he devotes himself from the 1880s, mainly representing Dauvergne and southern sites, it is a favorite subject until the end
