Description

Art Nouveau-style cherry wood desk. The legs feature organic, plant-inspired forms, echoing the shape of a gently curved stem. The grooved, contoured apron is characteristic of the period, beautifully blending curves and counter-curves. The desktop opens at the corners like a flower in full bloom. The drawer features a brass-finish knob with a rosette design. The light-toned wood and proportions are very pleasing. I am open to offers, as I am moving to a more spacious location. Delivery is available but not included in the price.
