Description

Art Deco sideboard around 1930, trapezoidal in shape, in rosewood-stained mahogany, richly molded and carved with stylized floral motifs. It opens with 2 doors with polylobed and diamond-cut panels, separated by a large sculpted frame forming a projection. Interior with glazed and varnished mahogany back, shelf mounted on a rack. The sides with panels also polylobed. Topped by 2 Portor marbles (gloss polished) 3 cm thick Uncommon model, quite spectacular and superbly re-varnished.
