250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Henri Raignau (XIX/XXth) : "Former convent of the Cordeliers in Paris", oil on hard cardboard 41 X 33 cm, signed and dated 1934, mounted in a damaged posterior frame 49 X 41. Label on the back indicating: "Former Convent of the Cordeliers - under the Revolution - club where Danton thundered". To clean. Parisian painter straddling two centuries, first painter of still lifes, he then evolved towards the Landscape, treated at the beginning in a quasi-symbolist vein then gradually becoming more stylized. This stroller strolling along the Couvent des Cordeliers offers a fine example of this last period.
