Nicolas Sanson (born December 20, 1600 in Abbeville and died July 7, 1667 in Paris) sometimes said Nicolas Sanson d'Abbeville or Sanson d'Abbeville was a famous cartographer of the 17th century. Active from 1627, Sanson published his first important map, the Postes de France, in 1632, with the publisher Melchior Tavernier. After having published a few general atlases on his own, he went into partnership with the print publisher Pierre Mariette.
