

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Frédéric Schopin (1804-1880) Saint Barthélemy - Original Drawing

1 000 EUR

Signature : Henri-Frédéric SCHOPIN (1804-1880)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Description

Original pencil drawing by Frédéric SCHOPIN (1804-1880) Henri-Frédéric Schopin born June 12, 1804 in Lübeck (Holy Roman Empire) and died October 21, 1880 in Montigny-sur-Loing is a French painter. Born in Germany to French parents, Henri-Frédéric Schopin is the son of the sculptor Jean-Louis-Théodore Chopin and the brother of the polygraph Jean-Marie Chopin. He is a pupil of Antoine-Jean Gros. He won the Prix de Rome in painting in 1831 for Achille pursued by the Xanthe. He began at the Salon of 1835 with four works: The Last Moments of the Cenci (Museum of the Charterhouse of Douai), Charles IX signing the act of Saint-Barthélémy, A fountain in Albano and A young girl and her goat. Bibliography: Bénézit. "Schopin (Henri-Frédéric)", in Nouveau Larousse illustré,

Dealer

ArtGallery

Old Drawing , Painting

Tel : 06 86 43 00 73

9 boulevard de la libération

Anet 28260

volume VII, 1904. Pierre Larousse, Grand universal dictionary of the 19th century, vol. 17.
Gustave Vapereau, Universal Dictionary of Contemporaries. Probably illustrating an episode of Saint-Barthélemy  Dimensions 22.5 x 17.5
cm Signed lower left Drawing in good condition - See photo