Description

Elegant travel case in elm burl, rectangular in shape, decorated with gilt bronze ornaments. This chest with pronounced and delicate veining is fitted with bronze reinforcements with floral and beaded motifs. A richly chiseled bronze entrance with an original two-point hook lock. The lid is positioned on brass hinges. For restraint, this box is fitted with quarter-circle brass compasses. Inside, we discover a padded silk fabric, also original. On the sides, this small chest has two drooping openwork and chiseled bronze handles in the Restoration style. It rests on four bronze lion claw feet. Refined and functional, this beautiful object catches the eye with the beauty of its wood essence and its beautiful gilded bronze fittings. **** Period: 1st part of the 19th century
