Description

Bronze with brown patina, signed on the terrace Franck Lemoyne (19th-20th century), sculptor of the French school of the 20th century. The subject, entitled Victoria, represents a young man with curly hair. In a standing position, he raises his arm to the sky, showing off a branch, while firmly holding his sword in the other hand. He wears an animal skin girded around his waist. This allegorical bronze, symbol of triumph and success, will captivate you with its lyricism and the finesse of its realization.
