

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Oil On Canvas, Putti Attributed To Henri Lefort Des Ylouses

3 800 EUR

Signature : Henri Lefort des Ylouses

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bel état

Description

4 oils on canvas laminated on cardboard
2 small: 36 x 14 cm - 1800 euros
2 large: 44 x 14 cm - 2200 euros in the shape of friezes, representing playing puttis, centaurs and other fantastic creatures, in pleasant pastel colors .
probably projects for wall friezes.

LEFORT DES YLOUSES Henri 1846-1912

Is a French artist at the same time, painter, engraver, ceramist and sculptor. He began his studies at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Paris in 1865 and was taught by Alexandre Cabanel.

He exhibited for the first time at the Paris Salon in 1869. In 1873 he was one of the artists of the

Dealer

Galerie Saint-Martin

Antics, Furniture, Paintings, Fine art

Tel : 01-42-60-83-65

5 et 11 rue des Saints-Pères

Paris 75006

Salon des Refusés.

In 1877, he received a silver medal for his work as a ceramist at the Universal Exhibition. The artist has a great passion for ancient creatures, fauns, sirens and other centaurs and little angels...