Description

Large and elegant cabinet in solid Cuban mahogany (front and sides) with 4 doors. In the lower part, two high solid doors benefit from a large miter-cut frame and an interior moulding. Each of the doors has two planks deployed with a joint in the middle providing perfect symmetry. The joint cover of these two doors is grooved giving the impression of three elements. The interior is fitted out with two shelves on wide racks and cleats. This very high piece of furniture also has two glass doors. The windows are original and have a mitred frame. The locks and keys are original, the entrances are inlaid brass and the left door has a push button. The interior is composed of a shelving forming six original lockers with a solid mahogany front with a molding. The sides are made up of a large plank
