Description

NAPOLEON III chest of drawers in rosewood, rosewood and amaranth marquetry and veneer. A beige marble 'Floral Lunel' from Nord-Pas de Calais, is embedded on its top. It opens with a drawer and a door, the latter arched with a central medallion molded in bronze and decorated with fine marquetry. It is richly ornamented with bronzes throughout: sculptures of children on the uprights as well as mouldings, falls, mascarons... The interior, measuring 88cm in height and 82cm in width, is in mahogany. It is lined with 2 shelves placed on racks. They are also fitted and measure 30cm deep at the sides and 34cm in the middle. Its rear is in oak, and it is removable by a return screw.  Period: Napoleon III - 2nd half of the 19th century. Perfect condition after restoration, stripping and varnished finish.
