Description

mr sandman the robot, wolverine 1945 Wolverine No. 44 made in Pittsburgh, PA 1945 is one of the most poetic toys I know It is an ingeniously assembled robot beach game: its head is a watering can, its shoulders a sieve, its body a bucket all wonderfully lithographed. I have already had other mr sandman but never with this perfect shiny condition, like new .this is the version with the handle ears on the watering can it was produced until 1956 was sold in a transparent plastic bag with a label.I have a bag and the label this model is mint with ears there is a version without ears the brightness of colours justify the higher price than a normal oxydated one,must be new old stock
