Small precision, all of our carpets are free shipping for France.

Beautiful Afghan in wool on wool, measuring 100 cm wide by 192 cm long in superb condition from the 1970s-1980s.

In red and black wool, for the whole, with a hint of white and curry yellow, this carpet is decorated with small guls, medallions found on Central Asian carpets, here alternating with small crosses. # Beautiful deep wool of great quality. # Note the quality of the intricate border design.

Afghan handicrafts are always very good bills. In other regions nomadic rugs are often loosely knotted and have long pile.

Unlike Afghan or Turkmen rugs which have dense and tight knots due to the Persian knot, features of velvet and goat hair or sheep's wool, soft and shiny.

But the use of goat hair is more common for warp and weft.

These carpets have a masculine aura and have always been appreciated since the 19th century for decorating the offices of businessmen.

These majestic carpets are certainly the best in Central Asia and are the work of the Afghan tribes.

The same spirit of knotting and pattern is found in the neighboring rugs from Turkmenistan belonging to the Tekke tribe, generally called Bukhara-Tekke, but the old production consists of smaller rugs, due to the distance that separates them from the Central Asia and foreign markets.

This carpet is in perfect condition :
velvet, fringes and edges.

Finishing, fringes at one end tied like a kilim followed by fringes.
