Description

Elegant 19th century oil painting representing a navy of boats in the port We see in the foreground a 2-masted ship coupled to another boat, in the background the life of a city and boats at the quay. This painting is rather pleasant with bright tones, the colors remained vivid. Probably English work in view of the flag of the ship. This painting has been completely cleaned and refinished, with some traces of old restorations visible on the back. Rear frame.
