Museum: Ardoise Armorié Hour Dial, 1681, Bishop Of Tréguier

1 180 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Assez bon

Material : Stone

Diameter : 18,5cm

Depth : 5mm

Description

Coming from a former convent, a large house in Arles, a beautiful slate table dial, octagonal in shape dated MDCLXXI, proudly displaying the coat of arms: Azure with a leopard lion resting its extreme paw on a stripped trunk , accompanied in chief by 3 fleur-de-lys surmounted by one label with 4 pendants, all gold. Count's crown linked to the office of the bishopric. Centre is engraved of a palms rosette with a floral centre, rounde hour engraved of Roman numerals, outer border of windings of acanthus leaves.
The dedicatee: Francois-Ignace de BAGLION de SAILLANT Born 1632/34 in Lyon and died in Poitiers on January 26, 1698. Buried in the Chapel of the SS Apostles of the Cathedral of Saint-Pierre in Poitiers.
Coming from a noble family from Perugia

Dealer

Eclecticnimes
Curiosity, Collection Cabinet objects,
Tel : +33665241111
Mobile : 06-65-24-11-11

Bellegarde 30127

(Umbria) Known since Pietro Baglioni in Lyon (1539), Son of Leonor, Baron de Jons, he was Maitre d'hotel near Louis XIII King. He renounces the world and enters the congregation of the Oratory on 5/7/1655. Became bishop of Tréguier in 1679 and of Poitiers in 1686... excellent orator and preacher... see his arms under the engraving in photo...
Dimensions = Diameter 18.5cm thickness: 5 or 6mm.
Condition: Die cut tin gnomon is not original, redone.
Two angles have the border redone, engraving is mediocre, but this is little visible. (See red arrows.)
Take a good look at our photos..... This item is for immediate purchase, payable by credit card or paypal.
- eclectic - antique dealers since 1970, Siret: FR 24.430113233. Invoice and Certificate are attached to each of our shipments.