Description

Painting done in oil on canvas applied to panel by Venetian painter Carlo Cherubini (Ancona 1897-1978 Venice) around the 1950s.

The work in question features a female figure intent on emerging from a stream; the young woman is surrounded by a varied vegetation of trees and bushes. The pictorial draftsmanship is characteristic of the painter Cherubini attraverso a use of vibrant and nervous brushstrokes of bright colors.

The painting is signed in the lower right corner.

The state of preservation is good. The measurements of the work are 40 x 25 cm.
