

Magazine Rack - English Stool In Blond Mahogany - 1900/1920

950 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Structure en parfait état, tissu en état d'usage

Width : 54

Height : 58

Depth : 35.5

Description

English Magazine Rack in Blond Mahogany, opening on the front with a flap decorated with a Crown topped with a Ribbon. This Marquetrie, colored, on a darker Mahogany background, is framed by a discreet net and a molded strip. This panel, equipped with a pull handle with beaded friezes, is operated by a simple metal system accessible from the left side. He discovers a filing cabinet with three compartments 23 to 27 cm deep, designed for storing newspapers or various magazines. Note the presence of an engraved plaque inside, 'Rec° Trademark', 'Reliability', a guarantee of the reliability of the manufacturer of this English piece of furniture. This Magazine Rack also acts as a Stool, which gives it an undeniable advantage and adds to its functionality. Indeed, its seat, removable, is

Dealer

Antiquités Lecomte

Antiquaire Généraliste

Tel : 02.40.57.63.83

Mobile : 06.38.26.81.12

33 La Bosse des Landes

HERIC 44810

covered with a period velvet fabric with a dominant green. It is bordered on the sides by two turned bars embedded in the uprights, thus serving as small low armrests. The set rests on four Chippendale legs.  Period: 1900 / 1920 Structure in perfect condition after restoration in our workshop, seat fabric in used condition. Shipping possible by Colissimo with adequate protection. Dimensions: Unit: Width: 54 cm Depth: 35.5 cm Height: 58 cm Seat: Width: 45 cm Depth: 34 cm Height: 52 cm Ref: 271 R