Description

Beautiful framed oil on canvas, representing Paris, at the corner of rue du jour and rue de la coquillère (one of the oldest streets in the 1st arrondissement of Paris), not far from the Halles district.

The composition is mastered but not frozen because the key is alert and captures the volumes without dwelling on the details.

The perspective is plunging which allows us to admire more frontally the facades and their picturesque stalls.

Signed lower left: CARDINALI

Dated: 66.

Condition:

Good general condition; the good quality frame shows slight wear in the corners but remains very correct.
