Description

Furniture in solid cherry of regional work. It opens with a molded flap, sloping, with a mitred frame and rests horizontally on two square zippers with brass buttons. The work area is covered with an anthracite imitation leather. The interior also offers, on each side, two stepped drawers with brass buttons and a niche in the center. The top of this piece of furniture, with a frame, is surrounded by a wooden strip on the back and sides. The lower part consists of two molded doors with a mitred frame on the front and a shoulder on the inside. The door on the left closes with a hook and the one on the right with an original lock, functional, with key and encrusted brass mesh entry. They open onto a shelf on racks allowing you to modulate the layout. The sides are each formed of two panels
