Description

Important bookcase in solid walnut and elm burl veneer with carved decoration of seaweed and shells. Central part with projection opening by a glass door with rich decoration in hammered wrought iron, the sides opening by two solid doors and two drawers in the lower part. It rests on a solid plinth with rounded corners, the handles, keys and keyholes are in gilded bronze, the shelving is adjustable in height. Hot stamped Thisse Nancy, superb quality of cabinetwork and very beautiful patina! Period 1900 We do not have any documentation on the Tisse house, we have sold several pieces of furniture bearing this stamp, always with a quality of cabinetmaking equal to the manufactures of the Majorelle workshops. We own the flat desk to the model. We invite you to visit our website:
