Description

Soliflore vase, enamelled perfume bottle signed Henri Quenvil
Decor of white flowers, white and black stripes.
Patterns and top of the collar in blue color.
On the collar, there is a chip and four égrenures.
By its shape, it could also be a bottle, which would explain the damaged neck following a blocked stopper for example and removed with force.
Height 15.2 cm 6 cm x 4 cm
Henri Quenvil produced pieces (vases, candy boxes, etc.) from the 1900s to the 1930s. He also produced perfume bottles, notably for Marcel Franck.
