

Pair Of Lambrequins In Taffeta And Woven Silk Borders Empire / Restoration - Circa 1850

600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Excellent état

Length : 257 cm

Height : 80 cm

Description

Circa 1850 for the mounting Circa 1810 for the borders France Two large Lambrequins in crimson red taffeta and borders in red and silvery cream woven silk. Referenced Lyonnais model of silk woven under the First Empire or the Restoration. Sequenced decoration with large stylized leaves and rosettes structured in a damask satin with a twill effect. Rigid red cotton lining. A few very light scuff marks on the edges. Otherwise clean and in very good condition as a textile antique. 600 euros each or 1000 euros for both. Dimensions: Two lambrequins of 80 cm at the widest, 60cm at the narrowest by 257cm for the large one and 246 cm for the smallest

Dealer

Villa Rosemaine

costumes et textiles anciens

Tel : 06 32 88 38 10

436 route de Plaisance

Toulon 83200