Description

Folk dance scene, large watercolor on paper laid down on cardboard panel, by Pierrette Paillot, painter from Rouen. Signed lower right. Horned panel in the corners, small lack of paint on the pants of the character in the foreground. Dimensions: 103.5 X 73 cm. Drawing and painting from an early age, Pierrette Paillot attended the Beaux-Arts courses in Rouen where Savary, Chaplin, Lasgy were her teachers. Pierrette Paillot's painting is characterized by expressionist gestures and a certain exuberance of the palette. Urban rather than pastoral in inspiration, she likes to recreate the feverish atmosphere of the streets, its shrillness and its colorful fauna.
