

Pair Of Important 18th Century Woodwork From The Louis XIV Period

3 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Height : 1m90

Description

Pair of important 18th century woodwork from the Louis XIV period. These are carved wooden altarpiece elements that have been re-lacquered. Very good quality of rockery style sculpture with a rich luxuriant ornamentation of falling flowers, acanthus leaves, scrolls... These woodwork served as separation doors (hence the hinges), very great decoration. Very good state; restorations of use and maintenance (see photos)
Height: 1m90 At the widest; 58cm

Dealer

Leonis

Antiquaire généraliste, du XVIIème au XXème

Mobile : 06 87 17 22 57

Toulouse 31000