

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

A Late 18th Century Alsatian Glazed Indian Caraco - 19th Century Montage

420 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

End of the 18th century for the Indian 19th century for the assembly Very beautiful glazed Indian with leaf seedlings and printed on the wooden board of leaves, yellow, blue superimposed for the green on a Chimney Sweep background, aubergine (obtained in vegetable dye by mixing indigo and red). Most likely from a famous Alsatian manufactory from the end of the 18th century. The assembly (or the transformation) is second half of the 19th century with uncovering at the collar and the wrists. Cream cotton chintz lining and fastening hooks on the front. Beautiful object of charm with moving authenticity! Clean camisole, without holes or stains. Good general condition of color and conservation. Dimensions: equivalent size 34, 13 year old girl. Height 39 cm, shoulders 31 cm,

Dealer

Villa Rosemaine

costumes et textiles anciens

Tel : 06 32 88 38 10

436 route de Plaisance

Toulon 83200

sleeves 47 cm, chest 78 cm, waist 63 cm.