Description

Pair of baluster vases from the Manufacture Samson. With a rich, varied and quality production, this factory named after its creator Edmé Samson (1810-1891) enjoyed significant success in the 19th century. Each of these vases has a gadrooned body, surmounted by a polylobed neck enhanced with a golden border. Placed on an elegant pedestal, these vases have polychrome decorations combining spring flowers and Asian motifs. Each one is marked with a monogram featuring the "S" of the porcelain maker. Their unique shape and the quality of execution of the ornamentations make these Samson vases objects of art that catch the eye.  Period: 19th century Excellent condition. Shipping possible by Colissimo with appropriate protection. Dimensions: Width: 14
