Description

Superb celadon kerosene lamps, embellished with bronze and adorned with original opaque glass globes set with a brass border at the top and bottom. These luminaires, both decorative and functional, have a large bronze collar, carved with foliage. They rest on a square chiseled bronze base forming vertical streaks with curved angles. The original globes, the delicacy of the celadon color associated with the refinement of the bronze ornamentations make these oil lamps a testimony of elegance during the Empire. ***** Period: Mid-nineteenth Perfect condition.
