Description

Charming little cabinet with burl mahogany front, fitted with four identical drawers. Each drawer has two sheets of mahogany burl arranged open book and a recessed solid mahogany bowl knob in the center. The top drawer has a lock with its key in working order. In the lower part, we discover a slightly projecting plinth which rests on plates. The top, meanwhile, is made of two sheets of mahogany wire worked open book. Its warm color and its small size make this small chest of drawers a rare commodity, which also seduces with its refined sobriety. *****
