Description

Long regional office in the north of Nantes in cherry wood composed of a top with a wide frame and a central part of two boards. On the front, this piece of furniture opens with two drawers fitted with a wooden knob, bordering a comfortable space in the middle allowing a seat height and a wide clearance. This desk table rests on four slightly curved Louis XV legs ending in a crowbar. With its sober lines and light natural hue, this desk table with its timeless design will provide you with a large workspace. *****
