Description

Charming little table in blond oak in the Louis-Philippe style. Its top consists of two panels with beautiful veins, and presents a perimeter with a slightly rounded field. This table opens as a belt with a drawer fitted with a round wooden entrance, which can be locked thanks to its working lock accompanied by its original key. This piece of furniture rests on four beautifully turned baluster legs. The format of this small table will allow you to find multiple uses for it and the warmth of blond oak will bring a touch of softness to your decoration.  Period: 2nd part of the 19th century Excellent condition after restoration in our workshop. Waxed finish. Shipping possible by Colissimo with careful packaging and appropriate protection. Dimensions: Length: 51 cm Width: 49 cm
