Description

Small bronze sculpture with brown patina representing a young boy, cigarette in mouth and lighter in hand. Dressed in a beanie over his soft hair, Bavarian shorts and clogs, the chubby child stands upright, one hand in his pocket and seems focused on lighting his cigarette. Julius Schmidt (1835 - 1920) was a prolific German sculptor from the second half of the 19th century. These works are diverse and very realistic. This bronze "the little smoker" underlines the mischievous side of childhood.  Period: 2nd half of the 19th century Excellent condition. Shipping possible by Colissimo with suitable protection. Dimensions: Height: 18.5 cm Width: 6.5 cm Depth: 11 cm Weight: 0.6 kg Reference: 231 T Additional photos:
