Description

Chinese porcelain vase from Nanjing with a beige crackle ground and polychrome enamel decoration. This vase presents a revolving decoration of a battle scene. Many colorfully dressed Asian warriors are painted, surrounded by a stylized landscape. Crowned with a turbulent neck, this vase is decorated with fantastic animals resembling lizards on the top of the body. Signed on the underside with a stamp, this Nanjing vase is a traditional work, dear to Chinese artists of the Qing dynasty.  Period: Late 19th century
