Description

Bust with brown patina signed Valérie Anjoras, painter and sculptor with an eclectic background, combining the abstract and the figurative. The artist here creates a bronze representing the monk Luca Pacioli (1445-1517), known as Luca de Borgo, Italian Franciscan monk, mathematician and founder of accounting. Luca Pacioli is dressed in his monk's robe and his head is covered with a hood. The serious face in deep thought, its features are marked and its expression is enigmatic. This work is signed and dedicated. We find the following inscriptions: "Luca Pacioli (1445-1510)" and "Interfimo Prize for the best Accounting Expertise Report". A tribute to the greatness of this man, this sculpture is a strong and charismatic work of art. ***** Period: XXth Excellent condition. Delivery possible by
