Description

Large farmhouse table from the Rennes region in solid cherry wood, with a top made up of 4 wide planks forming the frame, meeting at the mitred angles. In the center, we find 2 well-joined boards (without the use of composite material). The sides of this top are overflowing. The belt is composed in front of 2 drawers surrounded by moldings and opening by handles with brass patina. Between the drawers we discover a paneled part with reserve. The sides and back of this authentic piece of furniture feature beautiful crosspieces and reserve panels. In its periphery, this table is furnished with console at each angle. This traditional table will seduce you with its clean lines and warm color.  Period: 2nd half of the 19th century Perfect condition after restoration in our workshop. Waxed finish except
