Description

Large bronze subject with brown patina signed Charles Anfrie (1833-1905) on a base decorated with a plate engraved with the inscription: "Bonne Pêche". Recognized sculptor of the 19th century, Charles Anfrie has produced a harmonious work here representing a smiling young boy, firmly holding in his left hand the three fish he has just caught. The proud and upright child shows his achievement with the index finger of his right hand. Charming and bucolic, this large bronze will delight with its candor and meticulous details. ***** Period: 19th century Shipping possible by Colissimo with suitable protection.
