Description

Pair of Louis XVI style gilt bronze candlesticks with four lights. Resting on six beaded spinning top legs, finely chiselled rectangular base surmounted by a square base flanked by two jambs from which emerges a tureen crowned with three arms of light in Greek floral scrolls. In the center of these three candlesticks, a fourth comes out, it is decorated with three heads of rams joined by drooping garlands. Beautifully crafted 19th century work, the carving is fine and the gilding is very well preserved.
