Description

The Education of the Virgin is an extremely popular family scene in the 15th and 16th centuries. It represents Saint Anne teaching reading to her daughter the Virgin Mary. The mother is holding an open book, which the little girl is looking at attentively. This sculpture of the Flemish Burgundian School follows the characteristic diagram of the representations of this period. In linden wood, this color gives a softness to this group. Wear and tear due to the centuries, old woodworm attacks that do not alter the strength of this scene and the spirit of its time. Dimensions: W 15 cm / H 40 cm / D 11 cm. Weight 2kg
