Description

This rare bronze proof by the sculptor Lalouette explores the theme of Orientalism which is dear to him. If we know more about his classic subjects and those of the Commedia dell'arte, this young declaimer is seized in a movement of tension, his hand raised, he is in the middle of a speech and undoubtedly sells the qualities of the jewels and precious stones that he keeps in his trunk. The fine carving reflects the talent of the artist and the brown patina enhances the drape. In a perfect condition.
