Description

Pair of Art Nouveau vases which are different. There is another vase which is in a private collection, it measures 22cm. The works of this sculptor are rare and with unique prints. He is one of the great sculptors of Art Nouveau. in Belgium. In 1893, the sculptor-modeller Jean-Baptiste SLOODTS was active as a second-category worker at the Compagnie des Bronzes in Brussels. In 1896, he obtained a worker's decoration. In 1907, he was promoted to worker 1st class. After a few years, he was able to carry out orders in the modern or new aesthetic style (the term Art Nouveau was not yet in use): vases and cups, dishes decorated with flowers, female figures, animals. At the turn of the century, he made copper and silver mounts for Daum and Gallé vases. His work is extremely
