

Okimono Monk Holding The Tamma

750 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Ivory

Height : 15,5

Description

Ivory okimono representing a group of monks, one mounted on a dragon, holding the Tamma, the sacred pearl in his right hand, the other standing on a rock holding a Fly Hunter, accompanied by a tiger and a monkey. Japanese work from the Meiji period (1868-1912) height: 15.5 cm weight: 201 grams

Dealer

Jonathan Marchal

Asian art, Antiques and collectibles

Tel : 0033 6 18527595

Paris 75001