Description

Superb Louis XVI period mirror from the end of the 18th century. Quality work whose proportions are particularly pleasant. The pediment is decorated with floral interlacing, two lutes and a score with visible musical notes. The gilded wooden frame is nicely decorated with different interior friezes. In addition, it also presents very original Greek corners and floral scrollwork. Overall in very good condition, slight wear visible in photos. The ice was changed during the 20th. Parquet also in good condition.
