Description

Suite of four cups or trinket bowls in enamelled ceramic by Keramos Sèvres - René Hénon around 1950. Signature incised under the base of each of the pieces. Good general condition Dimensions: H 6.13 x 13.5 cm The "Keramos" company, a small ceramics company with six to eight employees, was located in Sèvres, not far from the famous Manufacture. Created by René Henon, an architect by training from the Ardennes who had established a first workshop in Montrouge, it existed in the 1950s and 1960s. The company was active and even worked for export. It produced small objects in enamelled earthenware, cache-pots, lamp bases. His productions were purchased by the artist Colette Gueguen for Primavera. Another part of its production was sold in the United States.
