The quality of these Persian pieces is not to be demonstrated, the work is fine, precise and durable and the materials used are of first quality.
This rug is clean, the wool is soft, beautifully knotted and finely tight as these rugs always are.
It reveals shades full of contrasts, many colors. A double rosette placed on a deep blue field, four spandrels decorated with branches and flowers.
It is surrounded by a border of bouquets placed in vases decorated with palm leaves.
Traditional, comfortable and high traffic wool rug.
The shades underline this clever floral design in the great tradition of Persian art that can also be found in Mughal art, inspired by the miniatures of the school of Tabriz, then capital of the Persian Empire, but completely revised with the art deco years.
