Description

Clock in gilded bronze, with wire movement, stamped Alexandre Destape, watchmaker of the Palais Royal in Paris during the 19th century. This timepiece with a stepped pedestal, finely chiseled, is decorated with dolphins, scrolls, foliage and acanthus leaves. It is crowned with a bust of Homer in bronze with a brown patina. The dial graduated in Roman numerals is surrounded by a garland of flowers. This bicentenary clock will bring a touch of elegance and refinement to your decoration.
