Description

Art Deco style furniture in Thuya Burl Veneer for its top, its front and its 2 sides. Beech your Mahogany constitutes the frame (uprights and feet), while the crosspieces and the back are in solid Mahogany. Mahogany subtly underlines the structure of this piece of furniture, distinctly composed of 3 spaces. It offers a flap on its top, embellished with a colored marquetry with geometric shapes, and which a thin golden chain keeps open vertically. Also on this upper part, a glazed door with bevelled oval glass opens on this same compartment, by a small finely crafted pull handle. It is a handle identical to this one which allows, in the central part of the piece of furniture, to open, horizontally this time, a second flap, embellished with a decoration reminiscent of that of the first. Finally, the lower part has 2 small
