Description

Small Oak Serving Table in Louis XIII style. It consists of 3 trays, each measuring 55 cm long by 39.5 cm wide. The one above as well as the one below are lined with decorations on their fronts and sides. The central plate, more sober, nevertheless has moldings on 3 of its edges. This sideboard opens with a frieze drawer, embellished with foliage sculptures and a pretty tiger's head in the center, acting as a pull handle. We also notice on the front a pair of flowers carved on either side of the drawer. Its sides are embellished, in the upper part, with rectangular moldings. Its 4 twisted columns also characterize this authentic piece of furniture, interesting in particular for its small dimensions and its functionality.  Period: 1900 Perfect condition after restoration in our workshop.
