Adrien Jérôme Jollain, received Master cabinetmaker in Paris on August 1, 1763-1788, belonged to a family of watchmakers and worked especially for them to whom he sold boxes of clocks. It was established in the cloister of Saint John of Lateran. A cabinet secretary stamped with the cabinetmaker is present at the Magnin Museum in Dijon. Inventory number 1938MOB8. Jollain worked in particular with Jean Louis Bouchet Watchmaker to the King for the Château de Bellevue. We find his cabinetmaking works associated with watchmakers such as: Jacques Baudin, Jean Furcy le Roux

Nicolas Potier worked in Langres from 1763 to 1788.
