Description

Large wall console in gilded wood.

-The lower part carved with foliage and flowers directs the gaze towards this large central shell framed on each side by powerful volutes and supported by a tray with rigorous and architectural moldings.

-This console with moving ornaments, powerful and sinuous sculpture is typical of Italian Baroque.

-Italian work to be compared to Roman production from the end of the 19th century in carved and gilded linden. Presented in a good state of conservation.
