Lithographs Of The Old Professions Carl Vernet

280 EUR

Signature : Carl Vernet

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Length : 21,5 cm

Width : 17 cm

Description

Beautiful and interesting lithographs after Carl Vernet. Representation of old trades the cake seller "they burn, they burn, they burn", the carp seller "milk carp, live carp". Good condition, each is slightly stained (see photos) Dimensions of the frame: 30.5 x 36.5 cm Antoine Charles Horace Vernet, known as Carle Vernet, born in Bordeaux on August 14, 1758 and died in Paris on November 27, 1836, it is a French genre painter, draftsman and caricaturist and lithographer. He is the pupil and son of Joseph Vernet. He was a member of the Royal Academy of Painting and Sculpture from 1788. Date from which he moved with his family to a studio in the Louvre.

Dealer

Saint-Cyr Antiquités
Antiquaire généraliste
Mobile : 0683647862

12 rue de bellevue
Saint-Malo-de-Beignon 56380