Description

Gouge work, 1950s Brutalism is an aesthetic movement that rejects unnecessary decoration, and exposes and enhances the raw materials used for construction. Brutalism's heyday was from the 1950s to the 1970s. Brutalism flouts lofty aesthetic ideals of beauty and homies in on cold, harsh reality. Dimensions: Height: 35 cm Diameter: 29 cm Price: 900 euros
